

Answers for Who am I in Crackley Wood

All the answers are linked to more information to click to find out more...

I live in water and on the land as an adult but I'm born with a tail instead of legs.

Common toad

I droop to one side as all my blue flowers pull me over unlike my larger Spanish relative who stands straight with flowers either side.

Bluebell

Hear me knocking as I hunt for tasty insects

Great spotted woodpecker

The king of the wood, tall and mighty I am very old, home to many creatures from insects to birds.

Oak

See me dancing in the dappled light between the trees, if there were too many trees I would not survive.

Speckled wood butterfly

I fly on spring and summer nights, the dark doesn't bother me as I cannot see, I have to listen.

Common pipistrelle bat

If you're behind me I can still see you as I can turn my head 270°!

Tawny owl

I may look like I'm from a fairy tale but my bright red is a warning – I'm poisonous!

Fly agaric

